

SECOND SUNDAY OF LENT:

As we journey through Lent – and through all of our Christian life – we have moments of revelation and periods of darkness. There are moments when we see the transfigured Christ and know his glory to be our future. And there are long periods when, as if asleep or in a trance, we can neither see nor speak but only wait in hope.

Glorious God, you make known your salvation through the presence of your transfigured Son. May we one day share in your eternal glory. We ask this through that same Son, Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

NEXT WEEKEND:

- Third Sunday of Lent
- Year A readings at 8:00 Mass and First RCIA Scrutiny
- Year C readings at all other Masses
