

THIRD SUNDAY OF LENT:

God sees the sufferings of the people Israel and “come[s] down to rescue them.” Thus, says God, am I to be remembered. But the people, traveling from slavery in Egypt to freedom in the Promised Land, do not remember; they “desire evil things” and are “struck down.” Thus Jesus’ stark command in the gospel: repent or perish, bear fruit or be cut down; and Paul’s warning in the First Letter to the Corinthians: do not take salvation for granted.

Merciful God, you call sinners to repentance. May we change from our sinful ways and receive life everlasting. We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Several OLOL Confirmation families have joined together to collect books for the Scottish Rite Hospital for Children's Book Fair. Scottish Rite Hospital for Children's summer book fair raises money for college scholarships for those graduating seniors who once were hospitalized and now have transitioned to an adult hospital. Last year, the book fair raised $6,000.00 for scholarships to be given to these children. Any type of books, paper or hardcover, are appreciated. Please place in the special marked bins. Thank you for your assistance.

Where would Jesus Park?

Several parking spaces adjacent to the handicap spots nearest the front doors of the church have been designated "Limited Mobility." These are set aside as a courtesy for anyone who finds themselves stressed by the walk from further out in the parking lot. This would include the handicapped, with or without official handicap hang tags or license plates, recent surgery patients, or anyone with a condition that makes walking difficult. These spaces are also intended for pregnant women and those carrying new babies or shepherding multiple young children. If you are able-bodied, give thanks to God and please park elsewhere

The Prayer Quilt Ministry combines the gift of prayer with the gift of quilt making. The purpose of the Prayer Quilt Ministry is to provide prayers through the tying of the knots. The knots are to be tied after a prayer is said for those who are in a spiritual or physical crisis and in need of lots of prayers. Once the quilt is full of prayers, the quilt is then given to the recipient, so that they can be covered in prayer during their crisis.
